WELCOME

We welcome Orpheia to Harakeke this week.

Pink Shirt day was well supported, see the great photos further on. Since it was a focus on anti-bullying we took the opportunity to highlight our school values Ngā Uara in assembly.

Manaakitanga—I am kind, caring, respectful

Māramatanga—I am understanding, curious, creative

Whanaungatanga—I am fair, a true friend, proud of my culture

Mana tangata—I am self aware, confident, maintain my well being

Ngā Uara /Values are acknowledged in every class. Each whanau has ways of awarding/ or recognising individuals and groups of children, demonstrating Ngā Uara We aspire to take every opportunity to foreground these Ngā Uara.

Children also volunteered to come to the front of the assembly and tell us their views on bullying and what everyone can do to address it. Suggestions: included Stop, Walkaway, Ignore, Go get help and more. The senior/ tuakana children were reminded they could help the juniors sort out differences; likewise the juniors may ask a senior child to come and help.

In highlighting our values/ Ngā Uara and saying what these mean in practice; it is equally important to say what it is not; which is bullying behavior.

Staff would appreciate it if each whanau discusses the policy with their child, making it understandable for them.

Bullying

Bullying is a form of harassment, and usually refers to intimidatory behavior between school students, but may involve staff. If the bullying involves staff and students, the harassment complaints procedure is followed.

Bullying is deliberate, harmful behavior that is repeated, or continues over a period of time. It often involves a power imbalance and it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves.

All members of the school have a responsibility to recognise bullying and to take action when they are aware of it happening. Bullying behavior can be overt (directly and easily observed) or covert (indirect, hidden, or less easily observed). A great deal of bullying is covert with bullying behavior rarely occurring in front of adults. If students are being bullied, they need to feel supported and know what to do.

Examples of bullying behaviours include:

- physical, e.g. hitting, kicking, taking belongings
- verbal, e.g. name calling, insults
- social/relational, e.g. spreading nasty stories, excluding from groups, making threats
- identity-based bullying, e.g. racist, sexist, religious, ablest, sexuality and gender-based bullying.

To effectively prevent and respond to bullying behavior at Clyde Quay School we:

- create a safe, inclusive, and respectful environment
- recognise diversity and avoid cultural bias
- work to eliminate racism, discrimination, and stigma in education
- Promote digital citizenship and cybersafety to our students
- identify and acknowledge bullying behavior and do not tolerate it
- deal with incidents of bullying through the school's Behaviour Management plan.

Chess Championships

Clyde Quay School Chess Championships began this week with lots of keen chess players showing up and sharing their talent. There are 2 competitions - Junior Chess Champs (Year 3-4), and Senior Chess Champs (Year 5-8).

If you have any chess sets around your house that you could donate to our school, the classes would love some more so that more students can give it a go.

Story-Starter Writing in Ngaio

Teachers provide a list of “sentence starters” and tamariki have to make a story work using all of these sentence starters.

Harry’s story:

Once upon a time there was a girl named Annie who was waiting silently at a laundromat, “This is super dull” she said to herself. Just when she was about to go back to reading her book, she saw a shimmering light inside the washing machine. “That’s strange” said Annie as she tiptoed and opened the door. She peeked inside the washing machine. Suddenly a fish made out of Annie’s sock came out of nowhere. “What just happened to my sock???” she cried. Taking a deep breath, she decided to investigate.

Annie went inside the washing machine where she saw billions of fishes. “Wait, this is an ocean” said Annie, but little did she know that an enormous shark is gliding silently towards her. When Annie turned around to leave, she smacked her head into the shark. “Aahhhhh!!!!” screamed Annie. And this is where the chaos began . . . the shark roared and blasted towards Annie and the chase was on! Annie screamed and swam for her life while the shark’s mouth was dripping with drool. “This is fun,” thought the shark. But then it saw something that it got shocked by, it was the washing machine! “Yes, yes, yes!” said Annie, and she burst through the washing machine. “Now that was an adventure” said Annie as she packed her stuff and went home because it was a tiring day.

After seven books have been signed off the completed wheel can be stamped at the school library, then redeemed at any Hell Pizza store (until 31/1/2022) for a free kids pizza!

If you have any questions please feel free to ask via school.librarian@clydequay.school.nz
