Nau mai haere mai hoki mai

Welcome back everyone and greetings to all the new families. There were five new whanau this week. There is lots happening this term so remember to check for updates through facebook, website, whanau newsletters, SeeSaw and of course this school newsletter.

Production Time

Ngaio whanau Y5-6 (Keith Hutton & Leon Davidson) are in the grips of finalising their production. It is scheduled for August 8 week 3. Script writing and associated tasks will probably reach “fever pitch” by the end of next week. Rimu Y7-8 (Mel Sutton & Sandy O’Brien) have a bit more time for their production as it’s scheduled for the end of term. As you know, the time comes around fast.

Student Reports

A New Look

Staff has reviewed the layout and content of term 4 reports. Staff aims to have these out early term 4. We would appreciate any feedback from you all. On that note, the senior school received feedback from the previous report and have modified the report accordingly.

Open Afternoon & Evening

The junior (Y1-4) whanau will have its open afternoon August 14 and the senior (Y5-8) school open evening is August 28. Put these dates in your diary as some of you may want to attend both especially if you have a child moving into Y5 or Y7 in 2020.

At the end of Term 2 we welcomed Luna and Chenfei to Harakeke

A very big welcome this week to our five new students at Clyde Quay School.

Calling all creatives, writers and artists...Books by Kids for Kids is roaring into life again. Meet up on a Wednesday, 12.45pm in Ngaio's back room.

We have some seriously fantastic books for the to be in the know!

All you need to bring is supplied!

fun plans to help you create library- but you'll need to show yourself, everything else is
